Last year he had 5,000 bushels of corn and he has fortunately 600 bushels of it still left. Mr. Castello says the good crop years follow the mild winters. At least that is his judgment. GROVER CLEVELAND has given permission to his friends to use his name as a candidate for the next presidency.

Welcome to Rev. and Mrs. E. H. Fleisher.

As per announcement the friends of Rev. H. Fleisher, pastor of the M. E. Church met on Monday evening last to welcome him and his bride to Phillipsburg.

The company convened at the church from 7:30 to 8:30, during which time callers were introduced to Mr. and Mrs. Fleisher. Rev. Theodore Bracken, of the Presbyterian Church opened the meeting with a few appropriate remarks and acted as a sort of director of affairs. The couple stood up and were introduced to their friends by Mrs. G. W. Young and Mrs. H. Wallace. After the company had all gathered, and congratulations had been tendered to the newly married pair, an hour was spent in friendly conversation and in listening to music, vocal and instrumental. Mrs. McNay and Misses Lela and Gussie Young, at intervals, presided at the organ, and Mrs. Ed. Korns and the Misses Young sang several selections. O. E. Johnston and E. B. Sewell joined with the ladies in rendering a few pieces. Editor McNay and Jacob Close had their violins there and they, assisted by Miss Gussie Young, gave the company some good instrumental music. Taken altogether it was a very pleasant affair and clearly exhibited the genuine esteem in which Pastor Fleisher is held by members of his congregation and their friends not members of his church. Mrs. Fleisher was a stranger to all, and she is gratified at the hearty welcome given her to Phillipsburg. She made a very favorable impression upon all to whom she was introduced.

Some of the friends made this a donation as well as a reception party, and deposited on the table some substantial testimonials of their goodwill toward Mr. and Mrs. Fleisher. The following is the list of names of contributors:

H. S. Poling, Mrs. R. A. Dague, N. B. McCormick, Mrs. E. Albaugh, N. Poling, J. N. McIlvaine, Miss Gussie Young, Prof. M. Platt, Miss Taylor, Geo. Young, C. H. Leffingwell, E. F. Korns, Mrs. Wm. Stretton, J. H. Close, A. Spaulding, John Hahnkratt, Mrs. John Bissell, E. B. Sewell, J. N. McNay, H. C. Spaulding, Mrs. J. S. Barnes, Mrs. H. Wallace.

—Brother McNay and Dague attended the Methodist reception meeting last Monday evening. We hobbled about in quite a friendly way. Mack had his fiddle there and he let us exercise it. We played the Arkansas Traveler and Leather-breeches, and Mack jerked off several dancin' tunes including "Old Zeb Coon." We guess there is now no serious trouble at all between us. Nearly every "pint of difference" has been adjusted except those growing out of our military service. Mack was in one battle (with the lightning bugs) but we made a raid on a melon patch. Our respective military status will probably not be settled till we ascertain the address of "Our Captain" and get him to print a letter stating how we fought, bled and died all the way from Camp Chase to the Gulf of Mexico. Captains of hundred days companies who saw no service except guarding of prisoners, are very good to their boys, and we can get a statement from them that will just paralyze our enemies. Yes, Mack and the HERALD scribe have fiddled away nearly all unpleasantness. Military matters alone remain to be adjusted.

Report of school in District 45, for the month ending November 28: Number of pupils enrolled, 19; average daily attendance, 15. Those neither absent nor tardy: Syrena Rogers and Maudie Bowman. Those not absent: Syrena Rogers, Effie George, and William Hobbs, Della and Maudie Bowman.

Mary Bowman, 98 91 Dora Bowman, 95 91 Dilla Bowman, 97 98 Maudie Bowman, 89 95 May Right, 95 80 Henry Merklein, 100 98 Willie Merklein, 98 85 William Hobbs, 95 97 George Hobbs, 95 98 Leslie Buffington, 95 85 Clarence Buffington, 95 87 Charlie Bowman, 82 95 William Bowman, 95 98 Geo. G. ROBINSON.

Money! Money! Money!!!

The First National Bank is prepared to take all first class farm loans.

From Bourbon County.

Mrs. Susan E. Smith, formerly of this county, in renewing her subscription to the HERALD appends some notes for publication. The following is the substance of her letter:

REDFIELD, Bourbon Co., Kan. Editor Herald: It is time for me to renew my subscription for your most valuable and ever welcome paper. I will enclose with the money order a short account of the country and town in which I now live. Redfield is a pretty little town made up of about five hundred inhabitants, of which the majority are quarry men and stone cutters and their families. The town has a fine school house, church and parsonage, two stores, and one blacksmith shop. The two merchants are selling at the rate of eighteen hundred dollars of goods a month, at least one of the merchants told me, but their prices on everything are enormous as they have no competition. The quarry men all pay up after pay day and have to pay large bills. Money out here seems to be plenty as there is so much public work. There are three flag stone quarries close to Redfield which bring thousands of dollars to Redfield, all being paid out in these two stores by the quarrymen. My husband is blacksmith at one of these quarries and although he gets good wages with rent to pay and provisions to buy we can not save much. Would like to have some of the Phillipsburg merchants come out here and set up a store. They could do well. We have only one doctor and no lawyers but have no use for the latter as the people are all law-abiding citizens. No profanity, gambling or drinking here. The people are most all church members.

SUSAN E. SMITH.

P. S.—Your paper is much appreciated here by all who read it.

MARVIN ITEMS.

A Christmas entertainment will be given by the Sunday school and day school to be held at the M. E. Church.

A donkey party was given at Mrs. Bell's last Thursday evening. Quite a number of young folks were present, all seeming to enjoy themselves well, as could not be otherwise, entertained by Mrs. Bell and her amiable sister.

Also on Saturday evening a surprise party was given her daughter, by Mrs. Church which surprised not only the little daughter but also the Lancers, who were invited through Capt. Murray, and marched into the parlor of Mrs. Church before they or Miss Ola knew anything of the surprise. Supper was served and a grand good time was enjoyed. A silver napkin-ring was given by the four teachers from the residence of Mrs. McManis, who were the only ones present except the Lancers. A gold ring from her parents, a silk muffler, and various other presents were given in remembrance of Miss Ola's twelfth birthday.

Mrs. Bailey, the Methodist minister's wife, under the treatment of Dr. Ensign of Kirwin, is slowly improving.

Marvin has a lady merchant. Mrs. Augler is to be found in the old Williams stand. We wish her success in her new line of business.

Will Soots, according to previous arrangements has left Marvin. He will be much missed as he is one of our most trusty and worthy young gentlemen. C. G.

The Boston Transcript says of the COTTAGE HEARTH:

"Setting aside its literary contents, which are of a high order of merit, the collection of receipts for the kitchen and for the sick-room, its practical suggestions and advice for the raising and care of plants and flowers, its instruction for beautifying homes by simple means, and other practical features, make it invaluable to every household."

MERIT WINS.

We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklin's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell as well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits. G. W. Bickford, drug gist.
